

MUTUAL AID FIRE PROTECTION & AGREEMENT

Between

Allen Parish Fire District 3

And

Oberlin Volunteer Fire Department

This agreement is made and entered into by and between the "Entities", as described in Section VIII Definitions (hereinafter referred to as the "Parties"), that have signed this Agreement. Whereas, the undersigned Parties desire to enter into a mutual aid fire protection agreement wherein the equipment, facilities, and trained personnel of each fire department are available to the other Parties in this mutual aid basis. Now therefore, that in consideration of the mutual covenants, agreements and benefits to all Parties, is hereby AGREED as follows:

I.

Scope of Services

- A. During the term of this Agreement, the Parties agree to provide such fire protection and suppression personnel and to make available such equipment or facilities as may be needed for the suppression of fires or the duties and responsibilities associated with saving lives and property within the jurisdictional areas of the primary department; provided that the personnel, equipment or facilities are not otherwise required within the jurisdiction as determined by the Fire Chief or his/her designated representative of the providing party. It is expressly understood and agreed by all parties hereto that no providing Party shall be required to use any equipment, facilities and/or personnel where such use would prevent or disrupt adequate protection of its own jurisdictional area. Mutual aid made pursuant to this Agreement shall be made by and to the respective Fire Chiefs or their designated representatives.
- B. The Parties agree (a) to maintain the work force and equipment needed to sufficiently control fires or other emergencies common to the saving of lives and property which are most likely to occur within their jurisdiction; (b) to maintain an emergency action plan for activating their personnel and equipment within their jurisdiction; (c) to maintain established procedures for the mitigation of emergencies; and (d) to provide all other departments with current lists of the available work force and or materials and equipment which, under most circumstances, could be furnished to requesting department.
- C. The Parties agree that no funds are allocated and none are committed or available to perform the services described in subsection I. A. above.

more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision thereof and this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

- B. This Agreement shall become effective upon each Party's signing of said instrument.

VII.

Liability

- A. The Parties agree that each shall be responsible for its own actions and those of its members while fighting fires, providing rescue services, providing fire responses, emergency medical services, traveling to or from the emergency scene, or in any manner providing services pursuant to and within the scope of this Agreement or a supplement thereto.
- B. It is expressly understood and agreed by the Parties that neither shall be held liable for the actions of the other Party or any of the other Party's members while in any manner furnishing services hereunder.

- D. The Parties agree to provide, at a minimum, responses according to the following matrix.

IV.

Terms of Agreement

The terms of this Agreement shall be for one (1) year with automatic renewal for (1) year unless a party gives written notice to terminate. Any Party shall have the right to terminate upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other Parties.

V.

Compliance with All Applicable Laws

The Departments shall observe and comply with all Federal, State, and local laws, rules, ordinances, and regulations affecting the conduct of services provided and the performance of all obligations undertaken by this agreement.

VI.

Legal Considerations

- A. All local, State, and Federal laws shall supersede any provisions made in this Agreement. Any provisions so effected will not negate the rest of the Agreement. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision thereof and this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.
- B. This Agreement shall become effective upon each Party's signing of said instrument.

VII.

MUTUAL AID FIRE PROTECTION & AGREEMENT

Between

Allen Parish Fire District 3

And

Coushatta Tribal Fire Department

This agreement is made and entered into by and between the "Entities", as described in Section VIII Definitions (hereinafter referred to as the "Parties"), that have signed this Agreement. Whereas, the undersigned Parties desire to enter into a mutual aid fire protection agreement wherein the equipment, facilities, and trained personnel of each fire department are available to the other Parties on a mutual aid basis. Now therefore, that in consideration of the mutual covenants, agreements and benefits to all Parties, is hereby AGREED as follows:

- C. The Parties agree that no funds are allocated and none are committed or available to perform the services described in subsection I. A. above.

II.

Direction and Control

The Fire service company(s), shall be under the direction and control of their own company officer. The company will remain intact as a unit, responsible for its own equipment and personnel throughout the incident. The company officer will report to the Command Post of the primary Department and will make himself/herself and the company for which they are responsible available for service. The Incident Commander will assume direction and control of the unit in whole and will give that unit and assignment. The fact that the task at hand is inherently dangerous must always be considered.

III.

Equipment and Consumable Resources

- A. The condition of the equipment must be the sole responsibility of its owner. If the equipment is damaged or destroyed during the incident, the financial responsibility is the owner's which may be recovered through insurance acquired by the owner or any other resource available to the owner. The requesting party will never be responsible for damage to equipment, injury to persons or the actions of the providing party.
- B. Any consumable resources may be reimbursed by or through the Incident Commander's jurisdiction (Requesting Party) provided that sufficient funds have been appropriated for said purpose. The Incident Commander has a right to recover any and all cost of the incident from any resources available.

IV.

Terms of Agreement

The terms of this Agreement shall be for one (1) year with automatic renewal for (1) year unless a party gives written notice to terminate. Any Party shall have the right to terminate upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other Parties.

Any dispatch of equipment and personnel pursuant to this agreement is subject to the following conditions.

1. Upon the request to a representative of any party hereto by a representative of any other party hereto, equipment and personnel of the party subject to the request will be dispatched to any point within the area for which the requesting party normally provided protection, as designated.
2. The request for aid shall include a statement of the amount and type of equipment, number of personnel needed and shall specify the location to which the equipment and personnel are to be dispatched, also they are to specify type of emergency the equipment and manpower are expected to encounter.
3. The actual amount and type of equipment and number of personnel to be sent shall be determined by the responding party.
4. On arrival the responding party shall report to the Incident Commander or Staging officer if activated and receive further instruction and or required tasks.
5. The responding party may refuse to obey these requests if it is deemed to be clearly negligent and or improper under existing circumstances.
6. The responding party will be released when the services of that department are no longer needed or if a further call dictates the responding party is needed to provide protection for the area it normally protects.

7. Compensation for any loss, damage, personal injury, or death occurring as a consequence of the performance of this agreement shall be determined by each responding agency.
8. Nothing in this agreement is intended or to be construed as reliving any party of its primary responsibility within its own designated area of operations.
9. No party shall call another party to respond to an emergency under the terms of this agreement until the calling party has arrived upon the scene and determined the need for assistance.
10. No party to this agreement will respond to the area of responsibility of the other unless the primary agency has been notified and will be responding that emergency.
11. When either party is responding to the area of the other party then the prime radio frequency of that party will be used
12. The terms of this agreement is to remain in effect permanently unless and or until modified or terminated by written agreement of the parties hereto, provided however, that any party so desiring may withdraw from the effect of this agreement by notifying the other parties in writing at least (30) days prior to the intended withdrawal.
